

Every Student Succeeds Act Town Hall!

Hosted by:

The South Carolina Education Association and Quality Education Project

May 22, 2018

TOWN HALL MEETING

ESSA has replaced NCLB.

What does this mean for our students, parents, community, teachers & schools?

FREE but you must RSVP by May 18 to attend!

6:00-6:30PM - Reception

6:30-8:00 PM - Panel Presentation

Location: International Longshoremen's Association, 1142 Morrison Drive, Charleston, SC 29403

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) returns decision making for education back to where it belongs – in the hands of local educators, parents and stakeholders – while keeping the focus on student success. ESSA ensures that all students, regardless of their zip code, will have the support, tools, and more time to learn. Local engagement is key to success. Please be there to see how you can support our students and schools in Charleston County!

PANEL DISCUSSION

Panelists include:

- SC Department of Education
- CCSD
- The SCEA President Bernadette Hampton
- National Education Association
- And other invited guests

ESSA supports student success!

Students should be able to learn & Educators should be able to teach!

Community involvement is important!

Please RSVP now to reserve your seat!
