

Hudson Named SC-SIC Executive Director

SC-SIC is pleased to announce that Tom F. Hudson, previously SC-SIC Associate Director and Interim Executive Director, has been named Executive Director of SC-SIC by USC College of Education Dean Lemuel Watson. Mr. Hudson has served on the SC-SIC staff for the last seven years, and was previously a Public Information Officer and SIC District Contact in the Beaufort County School District. He has served as a member of the SC-SIC Board of Trustees (2005-07) and as an elected parent and vice chair on local SICs in Beaufort and Richland District Two. In his capacity as SC-SIC Executive Director, Mr. Hudson will serve as a director within the USC College of Education's Center for Educational Partnerships and as co-coordinator of the SC Education Policy Fellowship Program.
