

Remember to Register for the SC-SIC Annual Meeting on Saturday, March 7!

This is a reminder that the 2015 SC-SIC Annual Meeting will be held on Saturday, March 7, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., at River Bluff High School in Lexington. Registration is FREE but attendance is capped at the first 200 to sign up.

Those attending this year's SC-SIC Annual Meeting will have the opportunity to participate in something unique and fun – the STEAMosphere – sponsored by the Morgridge Family Foundation and hosted by the Center for Education Partnerships at the USC College of Education.

The STEAMosphere will be a hands-on, interactive educational event for learners of all ages highlighting STEAM- inspired (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Math) creations of educators, scientists, engineers, students, artists, and other innovators.

The Annual Meeting will include:

- R. Scot Hockman of the SC Department of Education speaking on academic and artistic achievement in STEAM
- Presentations from this year's finalists for the SC-SIC Riley Award for School Improvement Council Excellence, along with Q&A session
- Keynote speaker Dr. Traci Young Cooper, former SC Teacher of the Year and current Chair of the State Board of Education
- PLUS the announcement of the winner of the 2015 SC-SIC Riley Award for SIC Excellence!

Lunch will be included for registrants.

Visit the SC-SIC website, <http://sic.sc.gov> for the day's agenda and the registration form.

Again, registration is FREE but limited to the first 200. Be sure to register by Monday, March 2!
