

The Case for the Souper Bowl of Caring: Richland County School District ONE

- 24,000 Students (PreK-Adult Learners)
- Suburban, Urban and Rural
- 80% Free/Reduced Lunch
(% of students participating in Medicaid, SNAP or TANF; homeless, foster or migrant student poverty index)
- 14% Students with Disabilities
- Community Eligibility Provision (CEP)
Designation

Souper Bowl of Caring 2018 Campaign

Shari Waters, Communications and Marketing Manager for the Harvest Hope Food Bank accounted, "What an amazing food drive collection. This food will go a long way in helping us feed the one in five children in South Carolina who struggle with hunger. Without wonderful partners like Richland One School District staff, students and their families, we simply couldn't do all that we do."

- 2018 signaled the largest food donation collection yielded by "Team Richland One" in their participation history
- District's collective donation aid totaled over 13,369 canned food donations - equating to 143 pounds of food = equating to 7,692 meals for the community.
- For continued and rich contributions to the community and conscientious vision to "Engage* Educate* and Empower" their students in giving to others, Richland County School District One was named the Souper Bowl of Caring's 2018 Youth Engagement Award recipient.

2019 TEAM RICHLAND ONE – “Tackling Hunger”

The slide features a purple-tinted background image of a diverse group of students. In the center, the Richland One logo is displayed, consisting of a green shield with a white 'R1' inside. Below the logo, the text 'RICHLAND ONE' is written in white, with the tagline 'ENGAGE • EDUCATE • EMPOWER' underneath in a smaller font. Below the image, the text 'Contact Me:' is centered in a bold, black font. Underneath this, the contact information for Dr. Traci Young Cooper is provided in a smaller, black font, including her title, office, phone number, and email address.

Contact Me:

(Panelist) Dr. Traci Young Cooper, Director (SIC Liaison)
Office of Extended Day Programs and Strategic Partnerships
(803) 479-5259 - traci.cooper@richlandone.org